Blizzard

Teru Teru Bozu:
This snow amulet is based on the Japanese Teru Teru Bozu (literally “shine shine monk”). It is a hand-made doll made of white paper or cloth hung outside for good weather. Traditionally, if the weather turns out as desired, the eyes of the doll are drawn in and a libation of holy sake is poured over. Hanging this amulet upside down acts as a wish for spring.